MANAGEMENT

Circular 07 2008/09

Date 1st July 2009

Dear Members,

We hope that you all had enjoyed our “Kolkata Artiste” program held at Singapore Poly Convention Centre.

Milon:

Once again it is time to contribute to the Bengali Association Annual Publication for this year, Milon 2009.

Kindly submit your articles for our 2009 Milon Issue. Bengali articles should be neatly written on A4 sheets or typed using a standard Bangla font. English articles should be typed using Microsoft word. We encourage more Bengali articles this year. Members may submit their articles one in each of the two languages. While we shall endeavour to publish all selected works of members, to accommodate more members’ contributions but in order to keep within the publication limits, we might have to decide to choose only one of the contributions. This is to ensure maximum exposure to as many members as possible, and also to keep to our publication limits.

We also invite drawings and illustrations to decorate pages. Please submit cover designs for the Milon as well. The MC will select the best cover design and its decision will be final. The deadline for submission is 15th of July.

Guidelines: Please refrain from sending school assignments as contributions from your children.

Kindly ensure that the submission has not been published or sent any where else for publication.

All submissions will be run through plagiarism screening software to avoid problems on copyright. Any affected submission will not be published. Copyright issues are taken seriously and we have to adhere to such regulations.

Guidelines on format of submission:

All submissions must be sent as soft copies. Article submissions have to be in .doc format. Font size must be 12, headings should be font size 16.

All submission in the children’s section must come with a photograph and age of the child.

All images should be in .jpeg,.gif formats. Please do not send any image file of less than 300 dpi resolution.

For the cookery section please send some pictures of the cooked item.
